

A LITTLE BUNGALOW

Irving Berlin - 1925

verse 1

C G7 C Gdim Dm G7 C
If you told me that I'm the lucky young man,
C G7 C Gdim Dm G7 C C7
From that moment I'd know my future be - gan.
F Adim C Am Dm A7 Dm D7 Gaug
I'd get busy at - ten-ding, to the hap-py end-ing,
C G7 C Gdim Dm G7 C
Let me tell you a - bout my wonder-ful plan.

chorus

Dm G7 Dm G7 C
A little bungalow, an hour or so, from anywhere,
Dm G7 Dm G7 C
A little cozy nest, the kind that's best for two.
C7 F D7
Among the shady trees, with birds and bees, and lots of air.
G7 C
And just e-nough o' ground to fool around with you.
Dm G7 Dm G7 C
Away from all the crowds, we'll watch the clouds, go drifting by.
C7 C7aug F
And when the moon above presents a lovely view.
F B7 C A7
There'll be a room in blue, the one that you would occupy.
D7hav Fm G7 C G7
It's under-stood that I would occupy it too.

verse 2

C G7 C Gdim Dm G7 C
If you're anxious to make me part of your plan,
C G7 C Gdim Dm G7 C C7
I'm quite ready to tell the world that you can.
F Adim C Am Dm A7 Dm D7 Gaug
If the plan that you're lay-ing, just needs my o - kay-ing,
C G7 C Gdim Dm G7 C
Don't let any-one try to stop you, young man.
