ALL BY YOURSELF IN THE MOONLIGHT

Jay Wallis – 1928

Intro: D / / / E7 A7 E7 A7 x2

Verse 1

Boys were made for girls, girls were made for boys,

B7 G#m Em

Made to share each other's cares and joys.

Em B7 Em

Life without a mate is like an empty plate;

E7 D E7 A7

Get yourself somebody to co-operate.

Chorus 1

There ain't no sense sitting on a fence,

A7 D

All by yourself in the moonlight.

D A7

There ain't no thrill by the watermill,

A7 D A7

All by yourself in the moonlight.

There ain't no fun sitting beneath the trees,

Bm E7 Em7 A7

Giving yourself a hug, giving yourself a squeeze.

D A7

It's insane swinging down the lane

A7 D A7

All by yourself in the moonlight.

Verse 2

What's the good of parks? What's the good of trees?

B7 G#m Em

What's the good of stars or sum - mer breeze

Em B7 Em

If there's no-one who will share them all with you?

E7 D E7 A7

Summer's just another season passing through.

Chorus 2

You can't go far in a motor car,
A7 D
All by yourself in the moonlight.
D A7
It ain't so gran' in a nice sedan,
A7 D A7
All by yourself in the moonlight.

G D
It ain't so sweet havin' a place to go
Bm E7 Em7 A7
Havin' a lot to do, nobody helpin' you.
D A7
'Taint no treat in a rumble seat,
A7 D G D
All by yourself in the moonlight.
