AM I BLUE

Harry Akst, Grant Clarke - 1929

intro   F - C7 - F - Eb - D7 - G7 - C#7 - C7 - F - C+

F   F7

I'm just a woman, a lonely woman

Bb   C#7 C7   F   Gm7 C7   verse 1

Waiting on the wea - ry shore

F   F+   Dm   F+

I'm just a woman   who's only human

Am   E7   Am   F#dim

One you should feel sorry for

Gm   Bbm6   C7

Got up this morning, long before dawn

F   Dm   G7   C7

Without a warning I found he was gone

F   F7

How could he do it, why should he do it

Bb   G7   C7

He never done it before

    C9 F   C7   chorus

Am I   blue, am I blue

                 F   Eb D   G7   C#7   C7   F   Dm F#dim C7

Ain't these tears in these eyes tel - ling you

    C9 F   C7

Am I   blue, You'll be too,

            F   Eb   D   G7   C#7   C7   F   Bb Bbm6 F

If each plan with your man done fell through

         Am   E7

Was a time I was his only one

       Bm7b5   E7   Am   F#dim   Gm7 C7

But now I'm   the sad and lonely one .... Law – dy

 C9 F   C7

Was I   gay, 'til today

            C9 F   Eb   D   G7

Now he's gone, and we're through

C#7   C7   F   D7   Gm7   C7   (.....end F   Bb   Bbm6   F .... F6)

 Am   I   blue

F   F7
It's aggranating, to stand here waitin'
Bb   C#7   C7   F   Gm7 C7
Waitin' for a trif - flin' man
F   F+   Dm   F+
It set me hatin',   to stand here waitin'
Am   E7   Am   F#dim
Suicide's my only plan.
Gm   Bbm6   C7
I think it's awful, his tratment of me,
F   Dm   G7   C7
It's most unlawful how mean he can be.
F   F7
I can't forget him, I'm bound to get him,
Bb   G7   C7
I'll run him down if I can.
----

chorus