

AND STILL THEY FALL IN LOVE

Al Dubin & Joe Burke – 1929

verse 1

G7 C Cm G7 Dm7 G7 C
Now, when you talk of wedlock it really makes me grin
G7 C Cm G D7 Fm6
It's like a wrest - ler's headlock right underneath your chin
G7 C Dm G7 Dm7 G7 C Gaug
They say we're all in - tended to live in harmo - ny
C C#dim7 G D#7 A7 D7 G Gdim G7
The the-o-ry is splendid but in re - a - li - ty

chorus

C
He'll go out and gamble, he'll go out and drink
D7
She will stay at home beside the kitchen sink
G7 Gaug C G7
And still they fall in love!
C
He'll be so polite but after they are wed
D7
He'll be eating peanuts ev'ry night in bed
G7 Gaug C F C Gm Edim7
And still they fall in love!
F F#dim C G7 C E7
Oh, how different lovers are when the knot is tied
Am E7 Am Caug C D7 A7 D7 G7 Bbdim G7
He prefers a good ci - gar to his dar - ling bride
C
She will murmur "Sweetheart, whither shall we fly"
Dm F#dim7
He will softly say "Oh, go lay down and die!"
Dm Em G7 C G7
And still they fall in love!

final ending: C Gaug C

verse 2

G7 C Cm G7 Dm7 G7 C
Now, married life is foolish from my own point of view
G7 C Cm G D7 Fm6
A year of strife and you'll wish you'd never seen it through
G7 C Dm G7 Dm7 G7 C Gaug
Though each one takes the other for "better or for worse"
C C#dim7 G D#7 A7 D7 G Gdim G7
I've found one or the other is always in re - verse

Arrangement by Lynne Talley