

BLAME IT ON THE MOON

Phil Baxter - 1929

verse

F F6 Bb F
I suppose you think I'm full of madness
C7 Fadd9 F
It isn't madness it's really glad - ness
F F6 Bb F
I suppose you think I've lost my mind, dear
C7
But don't you mind, dear, for you will
F F7 Bb
Find that I am not to blame and you will
Bb7 F G9 C7 C+
Say the same when I give the reason to you
F F6 Bb F
I am simply filled with admi - ra - tion
G7 C7 C+
My inspi-ration is you and the moon

chorus

F F6 A7
So if I'm bold and hold your hand
F7 Bb Abdim7
You musn't scold please understand
F Bb7 F C7 C9 F Abdim7 Gm7 C+
It isn't my fault, blame it on the moon
F F6 A7
If I am gay and steal a kiss
F7 Bb Abdim7
Then I'll just say "I'm sorry Miss"
F Bb7 F C7 C9 F Bb7 F
It isn't my fault, blame it on the moon
A7
If I start talking 'bout a ring
Dm A7 Dm
And if I mention a flat
G7
Don't be frightened or anything
C9 Cdim7 C7 C+
Cause I'm just odd like that
F F6 A7
But if you see my point of view
F7 Bb Abdim7
Then you for me and me for you
F Bb7 F C7 C9 F Bbm6 F end F6
It isn't our fault, we'll blame it on the moon
