

BLUEBERRY HILL

Al Lewis, Larry Stock, Vincent Rose - 1940

verse

A F#7 D6 E7 A D6 A
Do you recall a year ag-o to - night?
A F#7 D6 E7 A
We stood and watched the golden sun de-scending
C#m G# C#m
When love had just begun,
F#m6 G#7 C#m E7
Why did there have to be an ending?
A F#7 B7 E7 A A7
Do you recall a year ago tonight?

chorus

D A
I found my thrill On Blueberry Hill
E7 A Amaj7 A6
On Blueberry Hill When I found you
A7 D A
The moon stood still on Blueberry Hill
E7 A G7 A
And lingered until my dream came true

D6 A A6 Amaj7
The wind in the willow played
D6 A A6 A7
Love's sweet melody
G#7 C#m G#7 C#m
But all of those vows we made
G#7 C# E7
Were never to be

A7 D A
Though we're apart you're part of me still
E7 A G7 A
For you were my thrill on Blueberry Hill

repeat chorus

second ending: A D6 A
