

COCKTAILS FOR TWO

Arthur Johnston, Sam Coslow - 1934

intro bb..bb..bb..Cm..bb..F7..f..Cm..bb..F7..f..Bbadd9..bb..bb..bb F+

Bb A Bb A
Oh what delight to be given the right

Bb F+ Bb verse
To be carefree and gay once again

D C# D C#
No longer slinking, respectably drinking

D A+ D
Like civilized ladies and men

Gm9 G7inv
No longer need we miss

Cm7 F7 E7 F7
A charming scene like this

Bb A
In some secluded rendezvous

Bb F7 E7 chorus
That overlooks the avenue

F7 Cm7 F7
With someone sharing a delightful chat

Cm7 F7 Bb Ddim
Of this and that, and cocktails for two

F7 Bb A
As we enjoy a cigarette

Bb F7 E7
To some exquisite chansonnette

F7 Cm7 F7
Two hands are sure to slyly meet beneath

Cm7 F7 Bb7 A7
A servi - ette, with cocktails for two

Bb7 Bb+ Eb
My head may go reeling

Ebm Bb
But my heart will be obedient

Edim F7
With intoxicating kisses

Bb Ddim
For the principal ingredient

F7 Bb A
Most any afternoon at five

Bb F7 E7
We'll be so glad we're both alive

F7 Cm7 F7
Then maybe fortune will complete her plan

Cm7 F7 Bb F#7 Bb .. Bbadd9
That all began with cocktails for two
