

EVERYONE SAYS I LOVE YOU

Harry Ruby, Bert Kalmar - 1932

verse

G E7 A7 D7 G Edim D7 Am7 D7
Why can't we get together like others do?
G E7 A7 D7 G C7 G Em7b5 A7
Why don't I ever hear you say I love you?
D F#m A7 D
You never do things to show it,
F#m A7 D D+ Bm Bm7 E7
So how am I to know?
D Bm Em7 A7 D7 Am D+
You can't expect me to know it, unless you tell me so.

chorus

G E7 Am D7
Everyone says I love you
G B7 C Edim
The cop on the corner and the burglar too,
G Em
The preacher in the pulpit and the
Am D7 G C G Am D7
Man in the pew says I love you.
G E7 Am D7
Everyone, no matter who,
G B7 C Edim
The folks over eighty and the kid of two,
G Em
The captain and the sailor and the
Am D7 G C G C#m7b5 F#7
Rest of the crew says I love you.

Bm Bm7 C#m7b5 F#7
There are only eight little letters in this Bm ..lichee.. E9 phrase you'll find
D F#dim A7
But they mean a lot more than
Cm6 D7 C D7
All the other words combined.

G E7 Am D7
Everywhere the whole world through
G B7 C Edim
The king in the palace and the peasant too
G Em
The tiger in the jungle and the
Am D7 G C G Eb7 D7 ...end G6
Monk in the zoo says I love you