

EV'RYTHING'S BEEN DONE BEFORE

Harold Adamson, Edwin Knopf & Jack King – 1935

verse

C D7
There is nothing new beneath the sun, my dear
Bb7 F G7 C
Nothing new to do or say
C D7
Everything I think of has been done, my dear
Am7 D7 G7
Always in the same old way

chorus

C G7 C G7
Ev'rything's been done before, to share a kiss, a moment's bliss and
C A7
Hear you whisper you love me
Dm7 G7 A7 D7 G
Sweetheart it thrills, it's old as the hills but it's new to me
C G7 C G7
Ev'rything's been done before, the birds that sing a song of spring were
C A7
Always singing a - bove me
Dm7 G7 A7 D7 G7 C
And yet with you, their singing is something that's new to me
Em Am Em B7 Em B7
Life is strange, we hate to change from what is tried and true
E F#m B7 E G7
Though I know I'm only doing what the others do, still it all seems new
C G7 C G7
Ev'rything's been done before, to fall in love with the stars above
C A7
Be - gan with Adam and Eve so
Dm7 G7 A7 D7 G7 C D7 G7
When I'm with you I just want to do, what's been done be - fore

final ending: C
