

I'VE LOST MY HEART

Grace Henry, Morris Hamilton - 1931

verse

D Em A7 D D7
In the "lost and found" each day, in the daily press
G E7 A9 D Daug Bm
People sigh for pets astray or for gems they used to pos - sess
D Em A7 D B7
Tho' it pays to adver - tise for a thing mis - laid,
Adim F7 A7 Bm7 E7 A7
I think I'll simply ask your aid

chorus

D Aaug Bm7 Dm G7
I've lost my heart and someone's got to find it
Em A7 Aaug D
The big reward is me if you're that who
D Aaug Bm7 Dm G7
I missed it the moment I found out what a glow meant
Em A7 D G7 D
I mean the moment you appeared in view
D7
Tho' it may wander, it will grow fonder each day
Em E7 A7
Absence is bound to make it that way
D Aaug Bm7 Dm G7
I've lost my heart but somehow I won't mind it
Em A7 D G7 D
Because I've gone and lost that heart to you

if repeating chorus: D G7 Em A7
