

LET A SMILE BE YOUR UMBRELLA

Irvin Kahal, Francis Wheeler, Sammy Fain - 1927

verse 1

D A7 D Em7 A7
Once I met a happy little bluebird
D A7 D
I was just as blue as I could be
A7 D C#7 F#m
In a little while I began to smile
B7 E7 A7
When he sang this merry song to me:

chorus

D Fdim G A7 D
Just let a smile be your um-brella
Fdim D A7 Cdim A7
On a rainy, rainy day
A9 C#dim A7
And if your sweetie cries just tell her
Cdim A7 D6 D A+ D
That a smile will always pay
Ddim B7 Cdim B7
Whenever skies are gray don't worry or fret
C#dim E7
A smile will bring us sunshine
A9 A7
And you'll never get wet
D Fdim G A7 D
So let a smile be your um-brella
B+ B7 E7 A7 D B7 Em7 A7
On a rainy, rainy day

verse 2

D A7 D Em7 A7
As I listened to that happy bluebird
D A7 D
I soon learned his smart philosophy
A7 D C#7 F#m
On my window sill He began to trill
B7 E7 A7
This is what he had to say to me:

end Gm6 D6
