

MARIE

Irving Berlin – 1928

verse

 C6 Gaug C
There's a gleam in your eyes, Ma - rie
 C6 B7 E7
And the morning is plain to see
 Edim A7 Edim Dm
But you'll find ro - mance is a game of chance
 D7 Em G7 C C7
That is not all it seems to be

chorus

 F
Ma - rie, the dawn is breaking
 C
Ma - rie, you'll soon be waking
 G9 Fm G7 G9 G7
To find your heart is ach - ing
 C G7 C Caug
And tears will fall as you re - call
 F
The moon in all its splendor
 C
The kiss so very tender
 G9 Fm G7 G9 G7
The words “will you sur - ren - der
 C Fm C Caug C7
to me, Ma - rie?”

final ending: C

Arranged by Lynne Talley