OH JOHNNY, OH JOHNNY, OH! Ed Rose & A. Olman – 1917

verse 1

A E ₇ A
All the girls are crazy 'bout a certain little lad
C#dim E7
Al-tho' he's very, very bad
A C#dim E7
He could be, oh, so good when he wanted to
A E ₇ A
Bad or good he understood bout love and other things
Gdim E Am6 E Am6
For ev-'ry girl in town followed him a-round
B ₇ E ₇
Just to hold his hand and sing
O chorus
A E ₇
Oh, Johnny, Oh, Johnny! How you can love
E 7
Oh, Johnny! Oh, Johnny! Heavens above
A Adim E7
You make my sad heart jump with joy
E ₇ Eaug
And when you're near I just can't
A
Sit still a minute, I'm so
A E ₇
Oh, Johnny! Oh, Johnny! Please tell me dear
Bm C#
What makes me love you so?
\mathbf{A}
You're not handsome, it's true
B 7
But when I look at you
E 7
I just Oh, Johnny! Oh!

verse 2

E7 Johnny tried his best to hide from ev'ry girl he knew C#dim E7 But even this he couldn't do A C#dim E7 For they would follow him most ev'rywhere E7 A Then his friends got him to spend a week or two at home Gdim E Am₆ It's worse now than be-fore 'cause the girl next door B7 E7 Hollers thru the tele-phone

Arrangement by Lynne Talley