

ONE NEVER KNOWS, DOES ONE?

Mack Gordon & Harry Revel - 1936

verse

Cmaj7 C7 F Cmaj7 C6 Cmaj7
If the moon on high fails to signify any - thing to you
C6 C C7 F Cmaj7 C6 Cmaj7
If a starlit sky finds you there alone, no arms to cling to you
C6 Em Em6 A7
If the splendor of the night hasn't any message it can bring to you
D7 Dm7 G7 Gaug
Wait, lonely one, wait, love may be just a little bit late

chorus

C Gm6 Fm6 G7 C6 Ebm6
One never knows, does one, when love will come along
C Gm6 C7 Dm7 G7 Em Am7 Dm7 G7
Then so sudden-ly life turns out to be a song, hm - hm
C Gm6 Fm6 G7 C6 C6 Ebm6
One never knows, does one, the moment or the place
G7 C Gm6 A7
Then right before your eyes
Dm6 G7 C Fm G7 C
Someone occu-pies your em-brace
Bb6 C7 Bb6 C7 Gm7 C7 Gm7 C7
Some day look and you'll find two hearts were blessed
G6 A7 G6 A7
Some day fate may be kind
D7 Gaug7
Pray for the future, hope for the best
C Gm6 Fm6 G7 C6 Ebm6
One never knows, does one, that's just the way it goes
C Gm6 C7 Dm7 Em Am
All at once you hear, "hold me, car-ress me" and then
Dm7 G7 C Fm C F G7
Love may come, but when? One never knows, does one?

final ending: C

Arrangement by Lynne Talley