

Someone is Losin' Susan

Roy Turk, George W. Meyer – 1926

Verse 1

G G7 A7
Johnny fell in love with Susan from the start,
D7 G
Then he learned that Susan had an old sweetheart.
Eb7 Am7 D7
Johnny wasn't sore,
G
He tried all the more.
B7 Em
Once when Susan left him, she gave him a kiss
A7 D7 Ddim7 D7
And now he's up in Paradise and yells like this:

Chorus

G Ddim7 D7
"Someone is losin' Susan
G D7
Susan is choosin' me.
Gaug B7 E7
Some – one got used to Susan
A7
Right now, I'm shoutin'
D7
"Losers weepers, finders keepers."
G Ddim7 D7
My heart with love is oozin',
B7
For Susan constantly.
E7 A7
Someone is losin' Susan
A7b5 D7 G
'Cause Susan's losin' her heart to me!"

Verse 2

G G7 A7
Susie fell for Johnny with her heart and soul
D7 G
Left her other sweetie in the well known hole.
Eb7 Am7 D7
Only for a time,
G
Then she changed her mind.
B7 Em
Susie's first love got her back and on the street
A7 D7 Ddim7 D7
You ought to hear him shout to Johnny when they meet:

Repeat chorus.

Arrangement by Dave Calvert