

THE GOLD DIGGERS' SONG

(We're In The Money)

Harry Warren & Al Dubin – 1933

verse

Dm Bb7 A Em F#7
Gone are my blues and gone are my tears
Bm Bb7 A G#7
I've got good news to shout in your ears
C#m Eaug C#m7 F#7
The silver dollar has re - turned to the fold
E B7 E7 Bm7 E7
With silver you can turn your dreams to gold

chorus

A Bm7 E7 A Bm7 E7
We're in the money, we're in the money
A Aaug D F7 A Bm7 E7 A E7
We've got a lot of what it takes to get a - long
A Bm7 E7 A Bm7 E7
We're in the money, the skies are sunny
A Aaug D F7 A Bm7 E7 A F#m
Old man de - pression, you are through, you done us wrong
C#m F#m C#m F#m G#7 F#dim C#m G#7
We never see a headline 'bout a breadline to - day
C#m F#m C#m G7 F#7 F7 E7
And when we see the landlord we can look that guy right in the eye
A Bm7 E7 A Bm7 E7
We're in the money, come on, my honey
A Aaug D F7 A Bm7 E7 A E7
Let's spend it, lend it, send it rolling a - long ending: A E7 A

Arrangement by Lynne Talley
