

YOU'RE BLASE

Bruce Sievier, Old Hamilton - 1931

verse 1

Dm Eb F Gm F7 Bb Cm
Just like a pio-neer, you set a course and never caring,
Dm Cm Dm
You took your bearing to dis - cover.
Dm Eb F Gm F7 Bb
Ex-citment more than fear were in your grasp of life,
Cm Dm F7 F+ Bb7
The tutor be-came the suitor, you the lover.
Cm7 C7
You hadn't got the stamina to stand the test,
E6 B9 B7
You laughed at your examiner, you know the rest

chorus

A13 Dadd9 E7
You're deep just like a chasm
A9 Adim B7
You've no, en - thusi - asm
Em7 F7
You're tired and unin-spired
A9 D Em7 A7
You're blase
Dadd9 E7
Your day is one of leisure
A9 Adim B7
In which you search for pleasure
Em7 F7
You're bored when you're a-dored
A9 D G D
You're blase

C Bb
While reaching for the moon
C Bb
And the stars up in the sky
D7
The simple things of normal life
C7 A7
Are slowly passing by Dadd9 E7
You sleep, the sun is shining
A9 Adim B7
You wake, it's time for dining
Em7 F7
There's nothing new for you to do
A9 E7 Gm D A7
You're bla - se

verse 2

Dm Eb F Gm F7 Bb Cm
Now life, the overseer, has left you flat, he found the killing
Dm Cm Dm
Was not too thrilling, you were easy.
Dm Eb F Gm F7 Bb
He left you insincere and aged at that, your voice
Cm Dm F7 F+ Bb7
Once happy is sharp and snappy, hoarse and wheezey.
Cm7 C7
You clutch at ev'ry passing straw, you dope and drink,
E6 B9 B7
While those who were your friends before just watch you sink.
